

June 28, 2022

Part I: The Parties to this Complaint

Kimberly Dawn Lockwood

Plaintiff

Vs.

Williamson County Schools

Defendant

Part II: Basis for Jurisdiction

The Plaintiff, Kimberly Dawn Lockwood resides at 4401 Peytonsville-Trinity Road and she has been an employee of Williamson County Schools since 1996.

The Defendant, Williamson County Schools is the local education agency located at 1320 W. Main Street Suite 200 and the Plaintiff's employer.

The Plaintiff is seeking compensatory and punitive damages for the reasons outlined in part III of this complaint.

Part III: Statement of Claim

The Plaintiff will conclusively and irrefutably prove through the discovery process, subpoenas of witnesses and physical evidence that the Defendant and its employees acted with malice towards the Plaintiff, and willfully and purposefully engaged in illegal, deceptive and harmful behavior that caused the Plaintiff to be slandered, physically and mentally harmed.

The Plaintiff will conclusively and irrefutably prove that the behavior of the Defendant and its employees violated the MOU agreement, as well as, state laws (Article 1, section 1; Article 1 section 35; TCA 50-1-502; TCA 50-1-1002; TCA 49-5-512) and federal law/guidelines (Amendements IV, IX, and XIV).

The Plaintiff will conclusively and irrefutably prove that the Defendant and its employees purposefully shared and disseminated throughout the community personal information about the Plaintiff causing the Plaintiff to be discriminated against due to violations of (HIPPA, and FERPA).

The Plaintiff will conclusively and irrefutably prove that these illegal actions have been ongoing (at least at the building level) since 2018. However, The Plaintiff is seeking the right to a trial and the right to the discovery process to prove that these illegal actions based on unfounded and slanderous hearsay have been occurring even before the 2018 alleged date.

The Plaintiff will conclusively and irrefutably prove that the Defendant and its employees acted wreckless in addressing the Plaintiff's concerns (as early as 2020), denying the Plaintiff relief in numerous areas including the right to due process.

The Plaintiff will conclusively and irrefutably prove that several employees of the Defendant in administrative positions acted with malice, deliberation and deceitfulness which caused professional, physical, and mental harm to the Defendant. It is the Plaintiff's intention to sue these individuals once the discovery process is completed.

The Plaintiff will conclusively and irrefutably prove that the Defendant's actions were illegal in removing her from her position, and withholding compensation that was due.

Part IV: Relief

The Plaintiff is seeking relief for herself for compensatory damages as follows:

- 1) A public apology
- 2) My retirement (from TCRS and Lincoln)
- 3) Adequate, and True legal Representation before trial
- 4) One million dollars

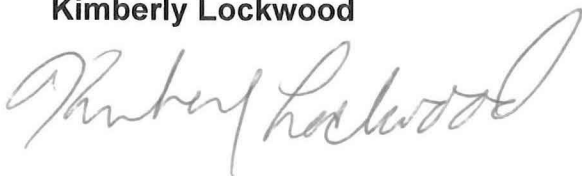

The Plaintiff is also seeking relief in the amount of $50 million dollars (in punitive damages) to be divided equally for any other person or persons that have a legitimate claim that the Defendant's actions toward the Plaintiff directly or indirectly caused harm to their person, property and/or effects.

Part V: Certification and Closing

I certify under penalty of perjury that these are true and accurate statements.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Lockwood

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Kimberly Lockwood", written in dark ink.

U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Public Portal

Your Appointment is Scheduled

Your appointment has been scheduled

EEOC Public Portal (<https://publicportal.eeoc.gov/portal/SupplementalInformation.aspx?From=494-2022-02182>)

Your Name: Kimberly Lockwood

Your E-Mail: kimloc1234@outlook.com

Your Phone Number: (629) 203-3115

Interpreter/Language: No interpreter needed

Additional Information:

Appointment Code: 494-2022-02182

Appointment Date: Thursday, 07/14/2022

Appointment Time: 01:00 PM (Time Zone: Central)

Appointment Office: Nashville

Office Address: 220 Athens Way, Suite 350B, Nashville, TN 37228

What type of interview : Phone